Fair Ambassador's Message

The most extraordinary thing happened to a very shy person at the 2008 Kinmount Fair. I was elected Fair Ambassador! That was the beginning of one of the most memorable events in my life to date. Since that weekend, I have had the opportunity to participate in many other local fair parades and Christmas parades. As Fair Ambassador, I have had the privilege to meet many important and interesting people, learn some valuable lessons and experience lots of fun on this journey.

The highlight in the month of February was the Fair Ambassador Weekend at the Fairmont Royal York in Toronto. It was amazing to meet other Ambassadors from Ontario and learn about their fairs. It was quite unbelievable to see all the people needed and the amount of work and preparation required to make a fair successful. I now wait patiently for the next time I will join with my new Ambassador friends at the CNE Pageant in August. I really look forward to representing the Kinmount Fair at this event.

As my reign as Fair Ambassador draws to an end and I pass the crown, I wish the new Ambassador all the fun and excitement I had. The memories I have will last forever and I recommend any young person try to become a Fair Ambassador. I have gained confidence within myself and if a person as shy as I was can do this successfully, you can too!

Thanks to the "Fair with the Forward Look".

See you at the Kinmount Fair.

Ashley Bowins,
2008 Fair Ambassador.
